

Report to the Parish Council

1. Everyone was delighted with the support given to the coffee morning and the money raised came to over £900 and the total raised to date is £1791 with donations still coming in.
2. A gathering of the relatives of those who are mentioned on the War Memorial is arranged for Sunday March 30th.
3. A personal note of thanks has been sent to those people whose addresses are known to thank them for their donations and to advise them of the date of the unveiling ceremony.
4. The notification on the war memorial is to be taken down on Easter Monday after being displayed for one month and John Hockley will then send off the form for the Faculty.
5. John Hockley has taken photos of the war memorial faces to check that we have the wording and format correct.
6. Saturday 18th October is the date for the unveiling of the restored memorial. Margaret Cully will officiate and John Bercow will unveil the restored memorial.
7. John Tibbetts is to find the cost of producing 20 books to give complementary copies to the families.
8. The inclusion of Frederick Sydney Bazelgette is to be further researched and discussed.
9. Enquiries are to be made as to the cost of having the memorial cleaned.
